

Reference point	Estimated height mAO	Notes
view	A	110 G L	525m north of the summit of Arthur's Seat, the Monuments of Calton Hill stand out against sky skyline	B	90	the level from which the Monuments and hill crest rise; the wooded southern slopes of Calton Hill are important to appreciation of the skyline of the hill
	C	90	the skyline slopes away eastwards from the hillcrest to a level 74mAO at the east end of the hill backdrop	D
	E		hills and sea are visible over the easterly slope which drops to Carlton Terrace

Calton Hill from west escarpment of Long Row, Whinny Hill

View No. E5