

Objection or Representation to an Occasional Licence for sale of alcohol

The City of Edinburgh Licensing Board is required to publish details of any applications received for an Occasional Licence on its website for a period of 7 days. During this 7 day notice period, any individual can object or make a representation about an application.

Any person wishing to make an objection or representation must do so not later than the date stated against each application, which is published in the online register available from the following link:

Occasional licence register

It is the responsibility of the person making the objection or representation to ensure that the Board has received it by the date stated. Please be aware that any objection or representation received will be copied to the Applicant. An objection pro-forma is available from the following link:

Object to a premises alcohol licence