

Place

Development and Business Services Proposal

This proposal is to adopt a new approach to set fees for regulatory and chargeable services, to increase commercial opportunities and to review the future needs and capability of services. At this stage the detail of the plans to deliver this have not yet been fully developed. An integrated impact assessment will be considered at each stage of the development process and will be undertaken where required.

Michael Thain
Head of Place Development