

Strategy and Communications Workforce Savings

Strategy and Communications provides a range of enabling corporate support services across policy, strategy, change management and governance. The proposed reduction will be delivered through effective vacancy management and vacancy freezes and scrutiny of all other discretionary expenditure. The senior management will proactively manage these pressures to ensure as high quality of service as possible

Laurence Rockey
Head of Strategy and Communications