

Integrated Impact Assessment Statement Library Efficiencies

It is intended to make a small number of internal service efficiencies to achieve the saving required. It is anticipated that these will be achieved by reducing operational costs and are not anticipated to lead to positive or negative impacts for people with protected characteristics, people vulnerable of falling into poverty, or geographical communities.

Joan Parr
Service Director, Culture and Wellbeing